

March

Dates to Remember:

March 7 – Parent Teacher Interviews Evening

March 8- Parent Teacher Interviews (No School).

March 18 – 21 Winter Carnival Week

March 22 – April 2 March Break (No School)

It's bookfair time! Our Spring book fair will take place in the upstairs multipurpose room Monday, March 4th - Friday, March 8th. Each class will have a scheduled visit time throughout the week, and families are welcome to visit during parent-teacher interview times. Thank you for supporting our school through this fundraiser, and for creating excitement around reading for your students!

There will be no Willy Wonka on Thursday March 7th due to parent teacher interviews!!

Our Willy Wonka performance dates have been confirmed. We will be doing evening performances of this year's musical on May 14th, 15th, and 16th, with the potential for some matinee shows on those days as well. These performances will take place in the Montague High School Auditorium. Our cast has been working hard and they're sounding great, we can't wait to perform for you!

School Wide Skate on March 19th! Permission forms will be sent home soon.

Do you have any Lego sitting at home that no longer gets played with? Please consider donating to our Lego club! Please email Ms. Tara at tjlewellyn@edu.pe.ca, or call the school at 902-838-0820 if you're interested in finding a new home for your used Legos. Thank you

 Parental Involvement
In children's education, parental involvement is a broad term that can take many forms inside and outside school. So, what role do parents play in education? Depending on schedules, parents can help their children by participating in school functions or obligations, advocating for the school and improving their children's schoolwork. Examples of getting involved at home include helping with homework, modelling desired behavior, providing ongoing encouragement, monitoring homework completion, and creating a time and space for study.

Parents can be more involved in their child's school by:

- Communicating with teachers regularly
- Volunteering for school activities
- Attending parent-teacher interviews
